

349 Wyandot Trail, Westcliffe, CO

Visiting 349 Wyandot is like walking into a maintained campground, only you'll get to build your forever home on this beautifully mitigated acreage. The ponderosa are tall and stately with soft grasses growing beneath. There are some nice building sites as well. Power and telephone are at the property line. Take an evening stroll up the trail and capture one of the glorious sunsets the Sangre mountain range is famous for. Peaceful days and peaceful nights are all you have to worry about here. Come take a look.
